

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Terry Jennings

- Full name: Terry John Jennings
- Address: Elmhurst, Rectory Road, East Carleton, Norwich,
Norfolk. NR14 8HT
Telephone/Fax: 01508-570289
e-mail: terryjennings@globalnet.co.uk
- Education: Deacon's School, Peterborough
University College London
School of Environmental Sciences, University of East Anglia
- Qualifications: B.Sc. Honours degree in Botany, with Zoology and Chemistry as ancillary subjects (University College London).

Ph.D. in Woodland Ecology (University of East Anglia).

Postgraduate Certificate in Education (University of London).
- Present post: Full-time freelance writer and photographer (since October 1983).
- Previous posts: Assistant Science Teacher, Biggleswade County
Secondary School, Bedfordshire (1960-62).
Assistant Biology Master, Ashford Grammar School,
Kent (1962-1966).
Head of Biology Department, Bognor Regis School,
Sussex (1966-1970).
Lecturer, and then Senior Lecturer in Biology, Keswick
Hall College of Education, Norfolk (1970-1981).
Lecturer in Education, School of Education, University of East Anglia (1981-1983 - terminated by voluntary redundancy).
- Research Interests: Woodland ecology; the behaviour and ecology of invertebrates, rodents, deer and African big game animals.
- Hobbies & Interests: Photography; walking; natural history; nature conservation; pet-keeping; popularising science, geography and environmental science.
- Publications: A number of scientific papers.
More than 400 articles on wildlife and natural history, nature conservation and the environment, pet-keeping, general science and science-teaching for a variety of magazines and journals, including Punch, Weekend, Science and Technology, Junior Education, Infant
Projects, Junior Focus, Sunday Express, Sunday Times Magazine,
The Living Countryside, Today, The Guardian, etc.

More than 220 books, mostly for children and teachers, including The Young Scientist Investigates series (84 titles - OUP) (published in the USA by Children's Press, Chicago), The Young Geographer Investigates series (12 titles - OUP)(published in the USA by Gareth
Stevens/Marshall Cavendish), The Into Science series (18 titles - OUP)(published in the USA by Gloucester Press), Oxford Primary

Science (11 titles), Oxford Reading Tree (6 titles), Science Success (6 titles), Geography Success (7 titles) Essentials for Science series (6 titles - Scholastic), Environmental Studies - A First Course (Pitman), Animals in the Home and Classroom (Pergamon), Science and Farming (Wheaton), Weather Watch (Hodder and Stoughton in conjunction with WWF-UK and Central Television), Restless Earth series (4 titles)-Belitha Press Ltd, Natural Disasters series (4 titles) Belitha Press Ltd.

Photography: Photographs of landscapes, travel, natural history, gardens and gardening, environmental, geographical and archaeological subjects published in many books and magazines.

Awards: The Times Educational Supplement Junior Information Book Award 1986 for The Young Geographer Investigates: Polar Regions.

Other posts: Consultant Biology Editor, Pergamon Press Limited (1971-1974, part-time).
Adviser to Anglia Television's Animals in Action series of programmes 1983-92 and compiler of the programme notes.
Author and/or compiler of computer datafiles in association with Animals in Action programmes.
Consultant for Anglia Multimedia CD-ROMs.
Major contributor to the Oxford Children's Encyclopaedia.
major contributor to Encarta Junior Encyclopedia.
Co-ordinating Author to the Oxford Primary Science scheme.
Consultant to Essentials for Science series (Scholastic Publications).
Consultant/Author, BBC Primary Science series.
Scientific Adviser and Fact File Author for Living Earth series of environmental texts (Macmillan).
Compiler of environmental notes for power station managers (National Power 1994-96).
Member of the Junior Education magazine's Best Books of the Year judging panel (Scholastic Ltd. 1989-).
Teacher Trainer in Primary Science: Shanghai, China (2000)
Writing Workshops for teachers, Podgorica, Montenegro (2003)
Talks/workshops for school children and teachers, UK (many dates)